Solutions-led perspectives on inclusive and sustainable mobilities: New pathways, fresh horizons
Second Annual Interactive Bi-weekly Webinar Series
SESSION 6 on 9th December 2021 at 2:00pm (UK time) on ZOOM
Convened by INTALInC

This webinar series seeks to offer fresh insights on emergent practical approaches to facilitate the complex mobilities and accessibilities of low-income settlements and vulnerable populations as they intersect with transport and urban planning, socio-economic inequalities, informalities and sustainability transitions. Drawing on diverse and vibrant perspectives and experience, the webinar series seeks to reflect on opportunities for transformation.

PROGRAMME AND REGISTRATION

SESSION 6: Future actions for bridging the gap between policy and practice
Thursday 9th December 2021 at 2:00pm (UK time)
Session Chairs: Fiona Rajé, Manchester Metropolitan University and Juan Antonio Carrasco, Universidad de Concepción and CEDEUS
Panel Participants: Julia Nebrija, Agile City Partners; Ajay Bailey, University of Utrecht; Jim Walker, Walk21; Hernán Silva, Fundación Ciudadanos y Clima; Heather Allen, Independent researcher/consultant on gender and sustainable transport; Samuel Odewumi, Lagos State University; Constant Capp, Code for Africa; Tanu Priya Uteng, Norwegian Centre for Transport Research

This webinar concludes the series and takes a different approach to previous sessions. It will offer practitioner insights from across the geographical spectrum which demonstrate action for mobility and accessibility on the ground. The webinar will take the form of a panel discussion session with audience questions and answers.

The overall aim is to provide an exciting mix of examples and sharing of knowledge which will illustrate how people are working to meet the complexities of urban living by adopting innovative solutions to transport and travel challenges of vulnerable populations. The panel session will harness experienced practitioners’ understandings to inform better and novel ways of developing citizen-centric solutions.

Webinar participants are invited to submit questions to emma.tsoneva@manchester.ac.uk for the panel before the session. There will also be an opportunity to ask questions on the day.
